ANNUAL REPORT 2024/25

ABOUT TASHKENT STATE UNIVERSITY OF ORIENTAL STUDIES

Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies (TSUOS) was founded in 1918, making it one of the most historic and unique universities in Central Asia. TSUOS prepares specialists in oriental studies, linguistics, history, literature, political science, economics, tourism, etc. There are 2 faculties, 2 institutes, 8 higher schools and 9 academic departments at TSUOS. Additionally, students can study 15 bachelor's, and 19 master's specializations, and 12 doctoral research areas within the university.

WHAT IS OUR GOAL?

TSUOS is a multidisciplinary educational institution specializing in further strengthening and developing the existing potential of the country in the field of Oriental Studies and training modern orientalists to meet the need for personnel who can interpret simultaneously and analyze the socio-political processes. Besides, helping further improve the quality of training personnel with comprehensive knowledge by international standards in the field of Oriental Studies, the rapid development of science, capacity building of teachers, continuous improvement of pedagogical skills, and the education of students based on oriental values are considered the main goals of the university.

FOREWORD

ORIENTAL STUDIES

We change the future with knowledge and sustainability

This annual report on sustainable development mainly includes information on the activities carried out at Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies (TSUOS) in the academic year 2024-2025. TSUOS operated in 4 goals according to Sustainable Development Goals 17 of the UN.

Since TSUOS has prepared information on the 4 directions of the SDGs, this annual report mainly presents the work done on the scale of these goals in sequence. It is worth noting that all the statistical and other information mentioned in this annual report was provided by the responsible staff of TSUOS, such as the chief engineer, chief accountant, heads of departments, deans, etc.

Most of the information presented in this annual report is also available on the TSUOS official website page created specifically for the SDGs.

EVENTS

On March 19, 2024, the 3rd International Forum on the topic “Democracy: Universal Values” was held in Beijing, the capital of the People’s Republic of China. The rector of TSUOS, G. Rikhsieva, also participated in the event.

Obidov Asadbek, a student of the Political Science program at the Faculty of Turkology at TSUOS, participated in the Human Rights School organized by the Kazakhstan Youth Information Service in Shymkent, Kazakhstan, from March 18 to 23, 2024.

On March 27, 2024, the next meeting of the University Ethics Commission was held with the participation of the Rector of TSUOS G.Rikhsieva, vice-rectors, deans and the university inspector. At the meeting, the issues of compliance of professors, teachers, employees and students with internal rules, strengthening the spirit of patriotism, and systematically improving work related to the prevention of delinquency and crime at the university were discussed. In recent years, the growing geopolitical tension and the increasing subversive movements in different parts of the world have caused deep concern to the academics of our country. It is especially dangerous that young people, who are the most influential stratum of society, are influenced by the destructive ideas of certain groups.

Ibrohimjon Juraboev, a faculty member at TSUOS, and a graduate of the Master’s program at Sapienza University of Rome (Italy), participated as an invited speaker at an international seminar on education governance held in Jiangxi Province, China.

On May 21, 2024, Shahnoza Farxodova, a master’s student at Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies, participated in the “Graduate and Youth Students” project organized by the Ministry of Higher Education, Science, and Innovation in collaboration with Tashkent City Administration, securing an honorable position.

On June 9, 2024, Suhrob Buronov, a political scientist and lecturer at Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies (TSUOS), gave an interview to UZA regarding Uzbekistan’s role in ensuring peace, stability, and security in Central Asia. In the interview, he once again emphasized Uzbekistan’s neutral approach in international politics and its commitment to strengthening regional cooperation.

Professor Sayfiddin Juraev and Associate Professor Nilufar Khodjaeva, Head of the Department at Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies (TSUOS), were awarded the “People’s Diplomat” badge by the SCO’s Center for Public Diplomacy in Uzbekistan.

An article titled “Why is the Political Spectrum of Parties Important?” by Ravshan Gaziev, Acting Associate Professor at the Department of International Relations, PhD, was published in the “Xalq So‘zi” newspaper, issue 192 (8815), dated September 18, 2024 (https://t.me/gazetalar_sharhi/31252).

On September 23, 2024, students of Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies (TSUOS), along with members of the “Young Orientalist Diplomats” and “Orientalist Analysts” clubs, participated in an open dialogue with a high-ranking official of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Uzbekistan, experienced diplomat Nurimbetov Rahmatilla.

On October 4, 2024, another round of debates was held as part of the election campaign. Representatives of various political parties expressed their views on pressing social issues, answered voters' questions, and commented on each other's positions.

During the debate, Dr. Sayfiddin Juraev, a professor of political science at Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies (TSUOS), provided an in-depth analysis of the issues raised, responses given, and inter-party approaches.

On October 5, 2024, at the student dormitory of Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies, professors from the Department of Eastern Philosophy and Hermeneutics held a roundtable discussion with students on the topic "Parliamentary Elections: Changes and Innovations in the Election Process".

On September 26, 2024, within the framework of a cooperation memorandum signed between the Youth Parliament under the Senate of the Oliy Majlis and the Tashkent City Council of the Uzbekistan Youth Union, students of Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies visited the Oliy Majlis Senate. <https://senat.uz/events/post-2722>

On December 11, 2024, a roundtable discussion was organized at Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies by the Compliance Control Department for Combating Corruption, in cooperation with law enforcement agencies, as part of the "Open Doors Day" initiative dedicated to the International Anti-Corruption Day, marked on December 9.

This event supports the achievement of UN Sustainable Development Goal 16 – "Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions", by promoting anti-corruption efforts, ensuring the rule of law, and strengthening public trust.

On November 13, 2024, a meeting was held with the Chairman of the Tourism Committee under the Ministry of Ecology, Environmental Protection, and Climate Change of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Umid Shodiyev, and members of the Council of Young Tourism Ambassadors of the Republic. Active students of the university also participated in this meeting.
