ANNUAL REPORT 2024/25

ABOUT TASHKENT STATE UNIVERSITY OF ORIENTAL STUDIES

Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies (TSUOS) was founded in 1918, making it one of the most historic and unique universities in Central Asia. TSUOS prepares specialists in oriental studies, linguistics, history, literature, political science, economics, tourism, etc. There are 2 faculties, 2 institutes, 8 higher schools and 9 academic departments at TSUOS. Additionally, students can study 15 bachelor's, and 19 master's specializations, and 12 doctoral research areas within the university.

WHAT IS OUR GOAL?

TSUOS is a multidisciplinary educational institution specializing in further strengthening and developing the existing potential of the country in the field of Oriental Studies and training modern orientalists to meet the need for personnel who can interpret simultaneously and analyze the socio-political processes. Besides, helping further improve the quality of training personnel with comprehensive knowledge by international standards in the field of Oriental Studies, the rapid development of science, capacity building of teachers, continuous improvement of pedagogical skills, and the education of students based on oriental values are considered the main goals of the university.

ORIENTAL STUDIES

We change the future with knowledge and sustainability

This annual report on sustainable development mainly includes information on the activities carried out at Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies (TSUOS) in the academic year 2024-2025. TSUOS operated in 4 goals according to Sustainable Development Goals 17 of the UN.

Since TSUOS has prepared information on the 4 directions of the SDGs, this annual report mainly presents the work done on the scale of these goals in sequence. It is worth noting that all the statistical and other information mentioned in this annual report was provided by the responsible staff of TSUOS, such as the chief engineer, chief accountant, heads of departments, deans, etc.

Most of the information presented in this annual report is also available on the TSUOS official website page created specifically for the SDGs.

2 ZERO HUNGER

EVENTS

On March 29, 2024, at the student dormitory of Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies, students celebrated Navruz – the enchanting festival of renewal and awakening, which embodies compassion, justice, and humanity. The event was held together with students who are spending their golden student years in their second home – the great city of Tashkent. In honor of the celebration, a festive table was prepared for the students.

On November 20, 2024, the Pomegranate Festival was held at Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies within the framework of the Sustainable Development Goal 2: “Zero Hunger – End hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition, and promote sustainable agriculture”.

CHARITY WORKS

On May 31, 2024, the Youth Union team, consisting of active TSUOS students, visited the orphanage located in the Yashnobod district as part of the #baxtiyor_bolajon challenge. They distributed not only gifts and sweets but also healthy and nutritious food products to children in need of care and support. This visit was a practical step toward improving children’s health and happiness, aligned with SDG 2 – Zero Hunger, aiming to enhance child nutrition. The team also held conversations about care, attention, and the importance of proper nutrition in child development, promoting a sense of responsibility regarding food security in society.

WEBINAR

On November 26, 2024, an international webinar was held at the Higher School of Iranian and Afghan Studies of Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies within the framework of Sustainable Development Goal 2 — “Zero Hunger: End hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition, and promote sustainable agriculture”. The webinar was dedicated to the topic of “Social Protection of Students”.
