Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies
Tashkent, Uzbekistan

Dear Prof. Dr. Nosirova Saodat Abdullayevna,
Warm greeting from the University of Tehran, Iran.

On behalf of the International Relations Office of the University of Tehran and in my own capacity, I am delighted to extend my sincere congratulations on your appointment as President of Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies.

I wish you every success in this important role and hope that your tenure will bring continued academic excellence, innovation, and new opportunities for international engagement to your university.

The University of Tehran highly values the opportunity to strengthen its academic relations with Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies and to further promote the spirit of friendship and cooperation between our two institutions. We believe that closer university-to-university ties can make a meaningful contribution to advancing education, research, and mutual understanding between our countries.

In this regard, we would welcome the opportunity to explore and expand practical areas of cooperation, including joint research projects, academic and student exchanges, collaborative conferences and seminars, joint educational initiatives, and the exchange of academic expertise and experience.

Please accept my warmest congratulations and best wishes for your success. I am confident that our continued engagement will open new horizons for fruitful cooperation between the University of Tehran and Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies.

Your sincerely,
Dr. Saeid Hamzeh
